

Inverness Interior Design Firm, founded by Kelly Guinaugh, is awarded the “Top 10 Designer Award”

March 27, 2007 – Arlington Heights, Ill. – Ten of the most successful interior designers/ decorators in the Chicago suburbs received recognition for their latest achievements at a cocktail party in their honor. Chicago Design Team, one of suburban Chicagoland’s largest trade-only showrooms, hosted the “Toasting the Top Ten” event. Included in the top ten was Inverness’ Kelly Guinaugh of Interior Enhancement Group, Inc. The honorees were chauffeured to the party in limousines, and were treated to champagne, caviar and other delicacies including a specially created “CDTini.”

Although there was plenty of “shop talk,” the party presented an opportunity for the designers, most of whom had never met, to get acquainted with each other. “When you are self-employed, you are sometimes isolated from your peers,” Camille Sullivan, showroom owner said. “Most designers are not part of a firm, so there is no way for them to be recognized for outstanding sales achievements. These women work very hard, and are extremely talented. They deserve every accolade they receive.”
